SECTION 3

How It Works
(See Bylaws Section 5)

A. Meeting Procedures
(1) Standing Rules

B. Conduct at meetings

C. Group Support

1. Any new group may request and receive financial support from IG. If a group dissolves, funds remaining are to be sent to IG (7/99)

2. New groups will be sent a Group Handbook and a welcome letter by the Intergroup Secretary Where & When Editor

D. Reimbursement & Finance

REIMBURSEMENT FOR REPRESENTATIVES AND DELEGATES

(1) General Policy: If sufficient funds are available, the policy is to reimburse representatives and delegates reasonable transportation, lodging and meal costs incurred while representing the Intergroup at Regional Assemblies and at the World Service Business Conference. The Intergroup votes in advance to authorize reimbursement for members in accordance with this policy and with whatever adjustments the Intergroup chooses to make.

(2) Transportation: Reimbursement for travel by common carrier (airline, train or bus) and local transportation between the terminal and the event site may be approved when the destination is more than 300 miles from Washington.

-Members who drive their own cars may be reimbursed 6 cents a mile (based on actual round-trip mileage between the member's residence and the destination and local mileage to obtain meals), expenses incurred for gas and for tolls, parking and other necessary expenses.

(3) Lodging: For Regional Assemblies within a 75 mile radius of Washington DC, the Intergroup will pay for one night's lodging. For Assemblies outside this radius, the Intergroup will pay for two night's lodging. For World Service Business Conferences within 75 miles of Washington DC, the Intergroup will pay for lodging for four nights. For WSBCs outside this radius, the Intergroup will pay for five nights.

Whenever possible, members will be expected to room with another representative and will be reimbursed at 1/2 the double occupancy rate. If a member chooses to travel with a personal guest, the member may not be reimbursed any lodging costs, but the reimbursement to which the member would otherwise be entitled may be used to reimburse another member, if left without a roommate, or at the full/double occupancy rate.

(4) MEALS: Generally, reimbursement for meals (or groceries) is limited to $15 a meal -- not to exceed $30 a day. The number of meals that may be reimbursed is based on the number of nights of lodging in accordance with the following schedule:

| Nights of Lodging | Meals | Nights | Meals |
|-------------------|-------|--------|-------|
| 1                 | 2     | 4      | 11    |
